

Pitcher

Date

late 19th century

Medium

ceramic; tin-glazed earthenware w/ cobalt, antimony, copper and iron in-glaze

Description

Large footed vase with high, wide-lipped pourer. Handle comes up from back and loops over midway on bowl. Cream colored glaze with sloppily painted rust-colored flowers with green, blue leaves and dark brown buds in groups of three.

Dimensions

8 1/4 in. (21 cm)