

Basic Detail Report

Bowl

Date

Late 18th century

Primary Maker

Artist not recorded

Medium

Glazed earthenware

Description

Footed bowl with ight blue glazed ground decorated in polychrome. This was also a Puebla ware, although sometimes it has been called "Veracruz" ware but, like Panama hats which were made in Ecuador, it received the name of the shipping port.

Dimensions

4 3/4 × 11 × 11 in. (12 × 28 × 28 cm)