

Boy's Hat

Date

ca. 1979

Primary Maker

Seng Yang Cha

Medium

Cotton, thread, synthetic pearls, acrylic pom-poms, embroidery floss

Description

The black hat is gathered at the crown and decorated on the front with sections of reverse applique in green and white with extremely small running stitches and knots. This rectangular "patch" is outlined in white and cobalt blue with a hot pink edging. In the center is a black 1/2 oval protusion. The front (top) of the hat has a bright red/coral elongated pom-pom above the applique. On each side are small triangular ear flaps in reverse applique of green on white, with small knots and blanket stitch rounds, and a coral red edging. The crown has a similar reverse applique square from which hangs three sets of pink/green (1 purple) acrylic pom-poms attached with strands of small synthetic pearls ornamented with colorful thread wrapped three dimensional triangles.

Dimensions

8 1/16 × 8 11/16 × 7 7/8 in. (20.5 × 22 × 20 cm)