beads sequins, jewels, faux metal, plastic, metal, green seed pearls

Description

The curved gold plastic backing has a commercial gold comb with five teeth attached to the bottom. Glued around three sides of the backing are eleven gold filigree plastic rosettes with gold jeweled beads in the center and four small red balls along the inside edge of each rosette. The Virgin de Guadalupe held up by a moon and pink angel is in the center and is dressed in traditional blue mantle and red dress underneath. Surrounding her are small clear jewels, gold beads, and small gold cylinders to represent the aura associated with her. On each side of her are six plastic flower-shaped sequins in various colors and three red flower-shaped swirls.
