

Basic Detail Report

Garment cloth

Date

Late 19th - early 20th century

Medium

Cotton

Description

Off-white garment cloth of four panels sewn together lengthwise. The two central panels each have four rectangular/geometric motifs in black and off-white with a small amount of orange, scattered evenly over the surfaces. The two outside panels have black, white and red stripes, the black stripes with narrow red central red stripes down the center. The fringed ends are bordered with bands of small serrated diamond within diamond motifs. One end has warp fringes wrapped in dark blue thread. The other end is bound in red thread. At the fringed end are small pink, green and black thread tufts projecting from the areas where each of the long panels are joined.

Dimensions

Overall: 66 15/16 x 40 3/16 in. (170 x 102 cm)