

Basic Detail Report

Belt Buckle or Pendant

Date

ca. 1950

Primary Maker

Los Castillo

Medium

Metal (Silver, copper, brass, others)

Description

Round silver belt buckle or pendant with face wearing Pre-Columbian style headdress and earrings of mixed metals (copper, brass, likely alpaca, etc.). Head faces to proper left. The back has a bent silver rod at proper left for attaching the belt, and a hook at proper right. At top is a loop for attachment to a necklace. Stamped on the back, over the cheek is "Metales Casados."

Dimensions

Whole: $\frac{3}{8} \times 2 \frac{1}{16} \times 2 \frac{1}{16}$ in. ($1 \times 5.2 \times 5.2$ cm)