Description

Set of three soup spoons with upturned bowls attached to the handles by an up-turned flange. The handles are narrow at the flange connection and widen out to the end, approximately half decorated with deep punched dot "flowers" linear "foliage" and double half-circles over sets of two dots. There is lightly punched infill between the large elements. The backs are undecorated. Spoon c) has additional scallops in the decoration closer to the center of the handle.
