Description

Spiral motifs are present along the borders of the painting. Three spiral elements at the top. A man in the middle is holding his left hand vertically and his right horizontally. Behind his head are three layers of circles of red, green, and yellow. There are two men below near the bottom facing left (from our point of view), and in the middle are a little man and a dragon. Behind the heads of two men are three layers of circles of red, green, and yellow.
