Description

Tramp art comb case made of layered and notched pieces of wood. At the bottom is an open topped box, decorated on its face with a repeating design of a circle within a square. Behind the box is a back plate that is decorated with more geometric designs of notched wood. The back plate also contains a small round mirror and at the very top is a notched, wooden rosette. On the back is the artist's name and the name of the wood that the piece was made from (cottonwood).
