

Basic Detail Report

YukiOnna "Snow Woman"

Date

2022

Primary Maker

Fumio Noguchi ()

Medium

carved from Deer Antler (100mm length), eyes are inlaid
Mother of Pearl

Description

New Zealand Japanese artist Fumio Noguchi’s netsuke of Yuki-Onna. Yuki-onna is a spirit or yōkai in Japanese folklore that is often depicted in Japanese literature, films, or animation. When I was little, Yuki-Onna was a one of scariest Yokai / Obake. When it's heavy snow, snow storm, it is told Yuki-Onna may appear and she freezes people by her cold breath. This piece comes with the stand which is made from Deer Antler and White Beach stone. A - Yuki-Onna main piece B- Stand

Dimensions

100mm