Wood

Description

Highly stylized, simplified cylindrical figure of dark hardwood has a light colored stick through a piercing in the "nose," the two projecting ends of which create the eyes. Simple ears on side of head, a row of hatching below the nose and simple cross hatching along the back of the head and across the top to the front, and up the sides above the ears. A simple neck connects the head to the simple body, which has long bas relief arms meeting at the bottom, below a large projecting belly button. Flat bottom pireced.
