

Basic Detail Report

Chatelaine

Date

1889

Primary Maker

S. Mordane and Co.

Medium

Silver, ivory

Description

A chatelaine was a decorative clasp or hook worn at the waist, from which various useful items were suspended by chains — such as keys, scissors, thimbles, watches, or small tools. 5 implements on a chain--scissors in case, tape measure, scent bottle, pad of ivory disks with silver covers, pencil holder, heavily embellished. Reverse is engraved "Maie Bartlett 1889". Stamped S. Mordane + Co., O&S, SB+E, and E.

Dimensions

Overall: 18 in. (45.72 cm)