

Basic Detail Report

Halvhandskar (pair of half-gloves for special occasions)

Date

20th century

Medium

wool, silk, chamois (goat skin) leather, plastic shirt buttons

Description

Unidentified Artist, worn by Lis Mia Dahl (b. 1921) These half gloves of natural chamois have an orange wool cuff. The front and lower thumb areas are embroidered with romboïd and heart shapes. The front heart designs are done in double herringbone stitch, and around the thumb openings in red and green cross stitch. The gloves close with a white plastic shirt button. The embroidery is silk. Half gloves are worn for especially festive occasions. Chamois (goat skin) leather trimmed with wool felt and embroidered in silk – double herringbone and cretin stitch. Made by: likely a local specialist

Dimensions

(Each): 4 1/2 × 4 5/16 × 5/16 in. (11.5 × 11 × 0.75 cm)