Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe

Medium

wood, paint, cloth

Description

Hollow skirt of course canvas. Tied into fabric dresses.

Clothing on figure when received, from outside to inside:

1.) Cotton shirt of hand crochet, lavender, shapeless, tied with white rayon sash. 2.) White cotton chemise, machine sewn, machine lace trim, torn, discarded. 3.) Fragment, green taffeta, front of fitted bodice- no swan edges left, discarded. 4.) Calico print dress with fitted waist, full pleated skirt and sewn in sleeves. Print is of an allover rose and purplish flower sprig pattern on light green. Hand sewn, cotton cord sash. 5.) Plum satin, fragment front panel only from a full skirt. 6.) Rose silk grosgrain bodice lined with green grosgrain, hand sewn in fine small stitches, five small eyelets on each side of opening, closes right down the side so that bodice may be laced on instead of sewn on figure. Square neck faced with silver metal braid, double row of this down front. Item clothing is located in Thorington row 13 F2/3
