Description

Image shows a street with several houses and women standing in front of the homes behind a fence. On the street is a white car with people inside, and three blindfolded people have been removed from the car and are being marched to a nearby white house with a red roof, identified as "casa de secuestro" a house where prisoners are sequestered, questioned and sometimes tortured before being moved to centers or prison. Over the heads of the people on the street are the words "el rapto del colectivo." See notes.
