

Basic Detail Report

Bowl, Majolica

Date

ca. 1780

Medium

Ceramic; tin-glazed earthenware with copper and manganese in-glaze

Description

Interior painted in green and violet with dashes on border and small profile of bird on twig with leaves around it in center. Typical Teruel shape of cuenco and design and coloring. Cf. FA.63.13.99, comparable Teruel bowl probably of ca. 1700, has identical measurements except is 5 mm higher, same coloring but with fish painted in the center. FA.68.15.5 has thicker & brighter paint and fussier design, prob. ca. 1780.

Dimensions

Overall: 4 3/4 in. (12 cm)