Medium

Wood, stain, varnish

Description

Small free-standing "bell tower" carved from one piece of wood. Has small non-functioning bell hanging in center of cupola with chip carved roof with acorn-like tip on top of spire. Cupola is on three section round stem on square base. Two small square handled boxes hang from corners of cupola. Base reads "JOE" on one side "BLA" on next and

"IR" on third side. Stained dark brown and varnished. Fine, exact chip carving overall.
