

Basic Detail Report

Etrog Container

Date

c. 1960

Medium

Olive wood

Description

"Absalom's Tomb", three pieces. Carved, polished, glued, varnished wood. Square building with doric columns, four to a side, round upper story with inverted trumpet top and flower shaped finial. Black calligraphy on face in two places. Two column tops missing. This is an etrog container (used during the Jewish holiday, Sukkot) in the form of Absalom's Tomb (Absalom is the son of King David). Yad Absalom is written on the lid; Jerusalem is written on the container. (FKH)

Dimensions

14 15/16 × 6 7/16 × 6 7/16 in. (38 × 16.3 × 16.3 cm)