Description

Two part silver belt buckle formed of two convex circular forms centering overlapping four pointed stars with a circle, these within an outer foliate circle. The outer edges slightly pointed, and decorated with another foliate band. Attached to the proper left side is a vertical portion which hides an eye on the reverse. The proper right side bears a hook which projects from the inside edge. On the back of both pieces are two soldered, bronze bars, to which a cloth belt would be attached.
