

Basic Detail Report

Serenidad

Date

July, 2013

Primary Maker

Rita Padilla Haufmann

Medium

Hand spun wool (churro), natural white and cochineal dye

Description

Weaving of handspun and hand-dyed churro wool in a Rio Grande panel format. The textile is woven in tapestry motif, with multiple fine ticked lines in reds separated by interlocking diamond patterns. The designs are done in cochineal reds on a cream ground with a slightly darker cream on each end. On each end is a 14 cm long fringe.

Dimensions

Whole: $53 \frac{3}{8} \times 34 \frac{1}{16} \times 1 \frac{3}{16}$ in. ($135.5 \times 86.5 \times 3$ cm)