

Pair of chapayeka dance rattles

Date

2008

Primary Maker

Francisco Gomez

Medium

Gourd, wood, leather

Description

Pair of dance rattles, with main part of each rattle made of a dried gourd. Handles are wood carved with a segmented pattern. A hole is drilled through the handle and a piece of leather put through it. Rattle a) has a discolored area on the end. Rattle b) is more evenly colored.

Dimensions

10 5/8 × 7 1/16 × 7 1/16 in. (27 × 18 × 18 cm)