

Basic Detail Report

---

Doll, San Juan Chamula dress

Date

Late 20th century

Primary Maker

Patixtán Sisters

Medium

Wool, cotton, wood, paint

Description

Female wooden doll with black hair, eyes, and eyebrows. Over her head is a mostly black headdress which is rectangular. It has multi-colored embroidered designs across it. There are tassels on each corner. Her blouse is white with embroidered multi-color designs on the yoke and sleeves. She wears a plain black skirt with a dark red and aqua woven belt around the waist. Doll is barefoot and her arms are at her side. The carved arms are hinged at elbow.

Dimensions

11 7/16 × 4 5/16 × 2 3/8 in. (29 × 11 × 6 cm)