

Horned devil of Coyotepec (Diablo Cachudo de Coyotepec)

Date

2015

Primary Maker

Moisés Ruís Sosa

Medium

Cornhusk (totomoxtle), plant fiber (ixtle), artificial dye, wood, cotton thread, glue

Description

A depiction of a traditional festival dance figure- a masked and horned anthropomorphic figure with arms raised skyward. It has a long white beard with an apron of purple fringe. Underneath, the figure is clothed in yellow cornhusk sandals. The figure is mounted on a wood dowel and platform.