

Basic Detail Report

Crucifix

Date

20th century

Primary Maker

Jose Mondragon

Medium

Wood

Description

Unpainted Christ standing on a small base attached to the cross with pegs in both hands and his left foot which hold him to the cross. He wears a crown of thorns and there is a sign above his head on the cross with the letters INRI. The coloration of the wood used for the body gives the impression of blood dripping down the chest, waist and knees. The cross is made of a darker wood than Christ.

Dimensions

29 15/16 × 17 11/16 × 2 9/16 in. (76 × 45 × 6.5 cm)