

Bureau of Indian Affairs

Date

1979

Primary Maker

George Suyeoka

Medium

Wood

Description

Large, three legged bureau with drawers. Human head on top of the piece is wearing an "Indian" headpiece with carved wooden feathers. The head is representing a Native American man with long hair and serious features. Main body of the bureau is also body of the human figure. Human figure is seated on a stylized horse. The arms of the human figure are holding the reins that connect to the head of the horse.

Dimensions

66 × 38 × 25 in. (167.5 × 96.5 × 63.5 cm)