

The Wedding of Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera

Date

January 2000

Primary Maker

Marie Romero Cash

Medium

Wood, polychrome paint, gesso, varnish

Description

Wood carving of two figures, male (Diego) on left and female (Frida) on right, figure on left in dark colored clothing holding painted paint palette with three brushes, figure on right wearing red shawl (Mexican rebozo) and two necklaces; both figures framed by carved sign overhead; sign has stylized moon painted on back. and front of sign has description written on front, bottom of sculpture is a rectangular brown panel.

Dimensions

Wedding Altar: $22 \frac{13}{16} \times 16 \frac{1}{8} \times 11 \frac{1}{4}$ in. ($58 \times 41 \times 28.5$ cm) Frida: $11 \frac{13}{16} \times 5 \frac{7}{8} \times 2 \frac{3}{8}$ in. ($30 \times 15 \times 6$ cm) Diego: $14 \frac{3}{16} \times 5 \frac{7}{8} \times 2 \frac{3}{4}$ in. ($36 \times 15 \times 7$ cm)