

San Ignacio de Loyola (Saint Ignatius of Loyola)

Date

ca. 1796-1862

Primary Maker

José Aragón

Medium

gesso, oil paint, wood

Description

Half length, thickset figure, boldly drawn and painted in thick, bright pigments. Figure has somewhat of a leer, bright red lips. A biretta on altar at left of panel, (right of St.) balances a well brushed, bluish palm with tendrils at right panel. The IHS emblem is so stylized it is a mere decorative ornament. A cartouche at lower left reads, in block letters: "San Hinacio".

Dimensions

25 9/16 x 15 3/4 x 3/4 inches