

Tongue-in-Eye

Date

April 2020

Primary Maker

Ýr Jóhannsdóttir

Medium

Wool, elastic, cotton tape

Description

From the viewer's left is depicted an open mouth with red lips and white teeth (delineated by black stitches).

Protruding from the black inside of the mask is a tongue

(with a black stitched line running its length) that extends to the wearer's left eye.

Dimensions

Including Straps: 11 13/16 × 3 15/16 × 1 3/16 in. (30 × 10 × 3 cm) Not Including Straps: 6 11/16 × 3 15/16 × 1 3/16 in. (17 × 10 × 3 cm)