Medium

adras (cotton warp, silk weft), naturally-dyed silk thread

Description

Rectangular hanging made of three panels of white plainwoven adras (cotton/silk blended fabric) ground embroidered in silk thread. The embroidery is arranged in a grid pattern of squares with an enlarged central square, all bordered with bands of flowering vines. The majority of squares contain circular / medallion designs and floral sprays, with a few others featuring geometric or floral grids. The hanging is edged with a burgundy cotton border. Natural dyes.
