

Basic Detail Report

---

Jar, Water

Date

Late 18th - early 19th century

Medium

Ceramic (earthenware), slip paint

Description

Ceramic vessel with rounded body fluted at shoulder downward with red slip and dark red painted slip of double headed eagle on one side with floral motifs surrounding and single bird with floral motifs on other side. Two looped handles. very unusual example, prob. used for storage of water....can't

Dimensions

24 3/16 × 21 1/4 × 21 1/4 in. (61.5 × 54 × 54 cm)